Parham- Randolph, items-

Jan. 4, 1936

In previous letters I have sent you a number of Parham items, which I will refer you to, so I shall not have to copy again- Please read over the Parham items on page 2 of my letter of Nov. 29, 1935, information about my James Parham and on page 3 of same letter.

Important Parham items on page 2 of letter of Nov. 15, 1935 ;

Some day, I hope to be able to have a search made of all Winfield, Pettway and Robinson wills of Surry and Sussex during the period, which might point to the surnames of the wife Ann of William Malone and the wife Mary, of his son William Malone Jr. who died in 1774. When Lucretia Tucker Randolph sold her land in 1825, Issac Robinson was a witness; when her father died in 1823, Isaac Robinson was a witness; and in the will of her brother, Robert Chappell probated in Sussex July 3, 1828, he leaves his entire estate to his nephew Thomas J. Randolph and also leaves him " my interest in the estate of Isaac Robinson deceased, now the dower estate of Winfield Robinson."

It surely looks as if the Robinsons were very close kin, and I am sure the kinship came through Elizabeth Malone, mother of Lucretia and Robert Chappell and wife of their father Thomas Chappell. Other records show my Malone ancestors buying land from these Robinsons and acting as Administrators or witnesses of wills or Inventories. As early as 1727 in Surry Co. my ancestor William Malone was a witness to the Inventory and appraisement of estate of Christopher Robinson. Nathaniel Robinson married Winifred, daughter of Robert Booth and they sold land to my ancestor, William Malone in Sussex in 1763. The Bristol Parish Register shows that this Nathaniel Robinson was the son of Christopher and Sara Robinson, and was born in 1722. The name was often spelled Robertson and Robbison, when referring to this same family. If the wills of Nathaniel and Isaac Robinson are preserved, they might throw much light on the relationship. I have not looked over the list of Robinson wills in the Va. book by Torrence at the library.

Besides the Parham data already sent, I will add a few items-

John Parham in Brunswick Co. will dated 5/8/1779; probated 6/26/1779; wife Sarah; son James not 21; daughters Betsy, Polly, Sally; Executors- Nathaniel Hicks, Thomas Lewellen, Samuel Davis, Martha Wilson (probably some of these witnesses)

There are records of a James Parham in Charles City, Prince George, Surry, Sussex, Isle of Wight, Southampton, Brunswick, Greenville, and N.C. I do not know whether they were all of my James Parham and his ancestors or not. The part of Isle of Wight that James Parham lived in might have been called successively Southampton, Brunswick and Greenville, as in that day counties often moved into people instead of people moving into counties; just as part of Charles City became Prince George and part of Surry became Sussex.

In the will of Ephraim Parham dated April 7, 1726, he mentions that his son, Lewis is under age; and as I wrote before he mentions a grandson James, but no son James. However his wife is said to have been a daughter of Lewis Green and to have had a brother Lewis Green; and records show that July 31, 1717- Lewis Green of Prince George Co. and Ephraim Parham of Surry convey to Lewis Green Jr. of Prince George Co. a tract of land and a water mill; and in Oct. 27, 1720, we find that James Parham of Isle of Wight conveys abpower of attorney to Lewis Green Jr. of Prince George Co. (Prince George Records 1714-28, pages 470) I would like to see that complete record, the one sent me is too abbreviated to be any help. Other records state that this James Parham of Isle of Wight had married Rachel, dau. of Capt. Henry Batte. Were they the parents of my James Parham, father of Frances, who married Peter Randolph about 1770-1772? These Greens also owned land in Surry Co., shown by records.

Friends- Wm. Mason and Robert Walker; witnesses- Richard Walker and Isham Smith.

Sussex Co. Book E, page 18- 7 March 1789: 4 Feb. 1790- will of Rebecca Parham- names dau. Jane Mason; grandchildren- Rebecca Mabry; Eliz. Wyche; John Raines Mason; Francis Burwell Mason; and a large number of grandchildren; Ex. son-in-law John Mason; witnesses- W. Harrison, Eliz. Mason, Lewis Parham.

This must be the Rebecca who married Ephraim Parham, listed with children Frances, Wm. and Rebecca in the Register. The grandchildren I did not copy had surnames Gee, Tatum, Dunn, Lewis.

Book E, page 119; Oct. 21, 1773- William Parham of Sussex, deed of trust to Wm. Mason of Brunswick Co. for the care of his mother and father, Susannah and Matthew Parham- estate to be held by said Wm. Mason, his heirs and Administrators for the maintenance of Matthew and Susannah, during their lives.

Sussex Co. Book A page 108- will of William Parham Dec. 18, 1756: Oct. 20, 1756 wife Ann; sons Thomas and Stith; Executors wife and two sons- Witnesses- Sloman Wynne, John Parham, Robert Pettway Jr.

This will abstract of Wyatt Harper is interesting-Will Book A, page 134; Feb. 11, 1759: July 20, 1759; Executors Ann Harper and brother Edward Harper; witnesses- Amos Love, Margaret Pritchard, Peter Green- "I give Thomas Hason, Joseph Pennington and William Parham all the lands I hold in Gloucester Co. I lend my loving wife Ann Harper all my estate both personal and real the better enabling her to raise my children till they come of age or married and after my daughter, Frances comes of age or marries, my estate to be divided between my wife and two children or the survivor of them.

I have already sent you the record where my ancestor James Parham Sr. of Brunswick Co. gives the negro slave Fanny to Peter and Frances Randolph, for love and affection he bears his daughter, Frances- Matthew Parham one of the witnesses.

Another death from the Register I omitted-

Capt. Thomas Parham died April 4, 1772, certified by Wm. Wilkinson.

Three of those older Parhams seem to have born the title of Captain.

Va. Mag. 5-70 Lewis Parham, Justice of Brunswick Co. June 5, 1746-

Prince George Co. records- Deed of Lewis Parham to "Couzin Lewis Parham", son of James Parham, Nov. 12, 1759. Here couzin surely means nephew.

Va. County records by Crozier Vol. 7 has the following land grants in Brunswick Co.- William Parham Sr. 1726- 145 acres; Ephraim Parham 1728- 338 acres; John Stith 1727- 398 acres/

I have a long list of marriages of Parhams in Sussex, but all later than my ancestor James Parham, who must have been married between 1745 and 1750 or even earlier. Genealogists suggest that his daughter, Frances, born-, whose birth is listed in Albemarle Parish Register 1747, may have died young; and another daughter born later named Frances, as Peter Randolph, her husband was born in 1750. I have found a few cases where men married women older than themselves in early Va. days, but it was very unusual.

I surely hope that you can find the names of the parents of my James and the full name and names of parents of his wife.

I feel sure that James Parham must have lived in that part of Brunswick, which became Greenville, adjoining the land of Peter Randolph, who owned land on both sides of the Nottoway River, near Ducking Field Branch and the old St. Mark's Church, where his father George Randolph was Clerk. Probably James Parham's land was just across the line. The land also adjoined Reed's Branch

X Brunswick Co. Dec. 1793- Nancy Randolph, orphan of Peter Randolph, decd. chose Nathaniel Parham, her guardian. This is Nancy, sister of my ancestor, George Randolph, who married Lucfeta Tucker Chappell. I would like very much to know whom Nancy married and whom her sister Elizabeth Moore Randolph married

I have never obtained an abstract of the will of Edward Parham probated in Surry in 1709; but was told that it was proved on oaths of Lewis Green and John Gilliam with Thomas Sessums Executor. I do not know whom he mentioned.

I sent you the abstract of Ephraim Parham in Surry 1726. The list of Parham wills published by Torrence is as follows-

In Sussex records, Ephraim Parham in 1766 gives Richard Hill, son-in-law two negroes.

He was security for another marriage the woman's name sent me as Cauze. I cannot locate it; but am wondering if that name could have been Caine instead of Cauze.

Albemarle Register of Surry and Sussex has the following deaths-

Ephraim Parham aged 65 died April 2, 1763 certified by Nathaniel Parham.

Matthew Parham died April 1772 certified by Wm. Wyllie

Capt. Matthew Parham aged 81 years died 15 April 1775- certified by Capt. William Parham.

W.P. William Parham died of the flux May 16, 1775, certified by Peter Randolph.

Capt. Thomas Parham died April 4, 1772, cer. by Wm. Williamson
I do not think that Torrence always got the complete list of wills. I know of several he omitted from his book. Lee Nicholson wrote me that Henry Batte had a grandson, Wm. Batte Jr. who m. Sarah Parham, thought to be a dau. or granddau of James Parham, who m. Rachel Batte, for they named a son, James Batte, and also named a son Lewis Batte. They had a dau. Elizabeth Parham Batte, who married Capt. Thomas Parham of Brunswick Co. on Nov. 20, 1794.

I sent you information about the James Parham of Sussex Co., whose will was probated in 1793 and whose wife, sister of John Graves and whose brother was Wm. Parham. This James Parham married Molly Graves March 18, 1785; and he was the son of Nathaniel Parham, who married Celie (Pettway) Lee in 1758, dau. of Robert Pettway and widow of Peter Lee.

Dear Mrs Chapman,

I am so thrilled over getting the will of my ancestor, James Parham and knowing definitely the names of his children. All of the items are very interesting to me but the different men named James, makes it very confusing. I am wondering if the James and Elisabeth Parham with daughter Frances, born 1747, listed in Albemarle Parish Register, could be another James, and not my James Brunswick. Did you find anything to indicate that Mary Parish was his second wife? I notice that the three brothers, James, John, William had a sister Frances. Maybe their father was named James and their sister Frances was the one born in 1747, Her brother James dated his will 1762, at which time the Frances born 1747, would have been fifteen years old. He mentions that she is not married. I judge that they were grandsons of Matthew Parham or I should say one Matthew Parham, for there may have been more than one living contemporaneously. James mentioned 100 acres of land devised to Matthew Parham by last will of John Peterson of Isle of Wight.

You sent me all of the will abstracts asked for except the one of Ephraim, the 3rd probated in Brunswick 1793. You probably abstracted it and overlooked it, when copying on your typewriter. I was especially anxious to find if he was a brother or son of my James Parham. My James may have been the son of Ephraim Parham the 2nd, mentioned in the will of his father, Ephraim Parham in 1726. He could not have been the son of Lewis, who was unmarried in 1726, when Ephraim 1st names a grandson James in his will. I am sending a dollar to the Va. State Library for the will of Ephraim Parham, probated in Sussex County in 1763. The Albemarle Parish Register states Ephraim Parham, aged 65, died April 2, 1763, certified by Nathaniel Parham (maybe his grandson), so this Ephraim was probably born in 1698, so could easily be grown and married and with a son named James, in 1726, when his father, Ephraim 1st died. The Ephraim whose will is in Brunswick, probated 1793, may be the one who married the daughter of Richard Hill, who makes a gift of two negroes to him in Sussex July 30, 1766. Could my James be a great grandson of the 1st Ephraim instead of grandson.

I feel sure that the Frances Parham, widow whose will was probated in Brunswick county in 1744, was the grandmother of my James Parham; the widow, Frances Parham, named in will of Ephraim in 1726. Note she names the same three sons named by her husband- Matthew, Ephraim and Lewis and "my daughter's children" Her daughter was also named Frances and was the wife of Hinchey Mabury. Lewis was her youngest son and she probably lived with him. Did she name any of her grand children or did she give the Christian names of the wives of Ephraim and Matthew or of wife of Lewis? As I wrote you before, Margery Gilliam, widow of John Gilliam and supposed to be daughter of first Henry Randolph, was the 3rd wife of my first Henry Briggs. Her daughter Elisabeth married three times- a West 1st, William Bevin 2nd and on 22 Oct 1685 "Francis Maybury married ye relict of Wm Bevin" and it was their son Hinchey (Henshaw) Maybury, who married Frances Parham, named in the will of her father, Ephraim in 1726. Elisabeth Maybury in her will in 1715 Surry county names children -Eliz. Paine, John West, Francis West, Francis Maybury, Hinchey Maybury, George Maybury, Charles Maybury, Ann Peoples, Mary Fox and Judith Maybury. In the will of Ephraim Parham in 1726, he names grand daughter, Elisabeth Maybury, and before 1737, she had married John Pettway.

Page 2 Letter of May 17 1936

Mrs Draper thinks that the name Charles came into my Briggs family from Charles Gilliam, brother of Elizabeth and son of Margery and her husband John Gilliam. Henrico county records Book 5, page 455-Charles Gilliam age 26 years sworn saith that in August last all 12 months ago deponent being in company with Doctor Irby did hear the said Irby declare that if he did not cure Elis. Maybury and her daughter, he was to have nothing for his Pains and further saith not "signed Charles Gilliam. Feb 1, 1693. Margery is supposed to have been the oldest child of Henry Randolph by his first wife (the one not known) for a large piece of property is turned over to Margery by Henry Randolph 2nd, willed to her by his father.

I have a note which states that John Mason Jr born April 17, 1741 died in Sussex County Sept 12, 1802, will dated Dec 11, 1802 and probated in Sussex 7 Oct 1802. He married 1st Elizabeth Gee and 2ndly in 1763, the widow Jane (Parham) Thweatt of Southampton county. Widow of William Thweatt and daughter of Ephraim Parham who died in 1763 and his wife Rebecca. It seems that all of their daughters married more than once, from the varied list of surnames of the grand children, named in the will of Rebecca Parham in 1790.

I think I shall send for the Ephraim will in Surry 1726, so as to be sure the genealogist sent me a complete copy and did not omit anything important.

I have just found that Henry Randolph had a sister Margery, which makes more sure the fact that our Margery was his daughter, probably his oldest child by his first and unknown wife.

You probably have the enclosed will, but will send it along anyway, in case you are interested. I wish I could find among my Parham ancestors, some wife of one of them, whose father or ancestor would be accepted by the Colonial Dames. It has been my greatest wish to have a Virginia ancestor accepted by the Colonial Dames. Of course, I am glad to have so many distinguished Mass. ancestors accepted, but I cannot help but love my Virginia ancestors more and feel more pride in them, although I may be disloyal and wrong to express such sentiments.

Sincerely yours

Lucile G. Fleasants

I sent you an abstract of the will of the brother of Ephraim or I believe it was his nephew, Matthew Parham, probated in Sussex 1772.

I have been told that Nancy was a nickname for Hannah, Anne, Annie and Nannie, and Anna. Maybe the name Nancy came from Hannah Hill, daughter of Richard, who married Ephraim Parham in 1764.

Page 4 Letter of May 17th

Of course Ann (Isham) Eppes gave her name to many descendants of our family connections Henry Batt had daughter Ann to marry Edward Stratton.

There was my Ann Malone- Godmother for a Parham in 1740.

Did you notice that in will of Wm Parham in Brunswick 1780, he names wife Hannah, but in Sussex, his wife was Martha when daughter Nancy Lucas was born 7 March 1769, unless Mrs Pierrepont made a mistake in copying.

Page 5 Letter of May 4 1936

I surely hope that you can find the names of the parents of my James and the full name and names of parents of his wife.

I feel sure that James Parham must have lived in that part of Brunswick, which became Greenville, adjoining the land of Peter Randolph, who owned land on both sides of the Nottoway River, near Ducking Field Branch and the old St. Mark's church where his father George Randolph was Clerk. Probably James Parham's land was just across the line. The land also adjoined Reedy Branch.

Brunswick Co Dec 1793 Nancy Randolph, orphan of Peter Randolph, deceased, chose Nathaniel Parham her guardian. This is Nancy, sister of my ancestor, George Randolph, who married Lucifetia Tucker Chappell. I would like very much to know whom Nancy married and whom her sister Elizabeth Moore Randolph married.

Dear Mrs Chapman,

I mailed a letter to you this morning and tonight I have been studying over the interesting items you recently sent me, and want to discuss some of them with you and ask you some questions, as you probably have a clearer grasp of the situation than I have.

I am wondering if the James Parham who married Rachel Batt and moved from Prince George county to Isle of Wight county was the brother of Ephraim (died 1726) or the son. It may be that Ephraim had only the three sons named in his will in 1726 and also named in the will of Frances Parham, widow of Brunswick, who I feel fairly sure was the widow Frances named in his will and supposed to be a daughter of Lewis Green Sr. The fact that she mentioned her "Daughter's Children" makes me feel more sure, for Mrs Draper wrote me that the daughter Frances died young and her husband Hinchey Mabury married again a widow- Ann Courtney before Mar 27, 1751 and he died before Jan 6, 1763. In case you are interested to know the children of Hinchey and Frances (Parham) Mabury- they were Elizabeth who married before 1737 John Pettway, Hinchey who married Celia Evans, daughter of Wm Evans; Ephraim; Joshua who married Lucretia; and Nathaniel; Jane, Frances, Rebecca, William, Joel ( married Winifred Smith), Daniel ( married Elizabeth).

Mrs Draper thinks that we are very close kin to the Browns and Mathews from records shw has- Surry county Book 1-334 has a deed of 230 acres from James Mathews Jr and Ann his wife to John Pettway, with the understanding that the land will descend to a child of his wife, Elizabeth ( daughter of Hinchey and Frances Parham Mabury) dated March 2, 1737. Then on page 391 of same book dated Nov 1737- John Brown and Mary his wife deed to Hinchey Mabury for five shillings 240 acres part of land granted to James Mathews Feb 8, 1722 and conveyed by him to John Brown and his heirs by deed of lease Oct 28, 1735.

Records show that my Randolphs inherited land patented by Marmaduke Brown and we also find this record- in Surry Big Book 1715-30 page 186- 19 May 1719- Indenture between Charles Gilliam of Prince George Co. and Hinchey Mayberry for 600 lbs tobacco land on Nottoway River by a corner of tree of Marmaduke's Brown's land- witnesses - Lewis Green Jr. James Matthews, Mary Green. Maybe the widow Mary Green married either James Mathews or John Brown; or Mary may have been a daughter of James Mathews and married first Lewis Green Sr. and secondly, John Brown. James Mathews must have been his father, he had wife Ann and moved to North Carolina.

I had always thought that my James
I had always thought that my James Parham was much older than he seems to be from records sent me. The James Parham who married Elizabeth Greenway in Greenville or Brunswick county in 1778, could hardly be his son, for his son, James was not of age in 1791. Then there is the James Parham, who left an Inventory in Amelia County in 1787. My James might not be the grandson named in the will in 1726, but probably was born a few years later, may be the son of Ephraim or Lewis. Maybe the James mentioned in the will was the son of Matthew and the father of those three brothers- James, John and William in Brunswick and the father of the Frances born in 1746/7 and may be the one who went to N.C. for I do not believe my James was the one who lived in North Carolina.

Page 2 of letter of May 18'

I am convinced that Mary was the wife of all of his children, for note that you sent me an indenture dated Nov<sup>r</sup> 26, 1756 mentioning James Parham and Mary his wife, proving they were married soon after the death of her father; but it seems they were disposing of that grist mill in 1756, mentioned in the record dated Oct 7, 1742, which is so condensed I do not know whether Lewis Parham gave the mill to James or sold it to him. If the James Parham mentioned in 1756 is the same as the one mentioned in 1742, he must be the James named in the will in 1726, in order to be old enough to receive a deed of gift from his uncle Lewis Parham, as such gifts were seldom made before a man was sixteen though they were probably made to small children under certain circumstances.

The names of the children mentioned in James Parham's will are also very enlightening, for notice Sary Atkinson must be for Mary's mother, Sarah Parish; Mary Duke for Mary, herself, Rebecca for Ephraim Parham's wife, Of course Frances was a Parham name from earliest days.

In the record dated Dec 27, 1760 (practically 1761) where James Parham gives his son Lewis a negro named Pate, would Lewis have to be 21 or could be received such a gift, when 16. I have been told that Virginia men matured so early that they often married at sixteen and were given their own plantations to manage at that age, so Lewis might really have been just 16 and so born about 1745/46; but he could not be the son of the wife, Mary. Of course that older James Parham might also have had a son, Lewis.

You did not send me the date of this record, as follows: - "James Parham, of Brunswick for 120 lbs to Lewis Parham of Prince George, negroes Peter and Dick I am curious to know what the date of that record is. And you did not send date of the transaction between James Parham and Robert Ruffin of Dinwiddie.

James Parham deed of gift to his son Nathaniel of two negroes Will and James Jan 25, 1790, must have been just as the son came of age; and I do not imagine he had given Lewis negroes, for he left him such a generous sum of money, Nathaniel and Lewis had evidently come of age, as they were made Executors in 1790. I wonder if the sons Lewis and Ephraim were dead in 1811, when Mary Parham left her entire estate to her two sons, Nathaniel and James W. Parham.

Of course our first Parham ancestor in Va. named in the 1655 record was James Parham father of Matthew Parham and then in 1690, James Parham and Henry King patent a tract of land jointly near Monksneck on the side of the Great Swamp. Then in 1717, James Parham of Prince George county conveyed to Joshua Poythress 200 acres of land of Bayly's Creek adjoining Henry Batt. Then 1720 James Parham of Isle of Wight gives Lewis Green Jr. a power of attorney in Prince George county. Then Sep 10, 1720 James Parham of Isle of Wight had married Rachel, a daughter of Capt Henry Batt (1714-28 Prince George Co. records) Then in 1726 Ephraim Parham names a young grandson James Parham in his will.

Capt Hinchey Gilliam and Nathaniel Harrison owned land together in Surry in 1701, and in the will of the former he speaks of land adjoining Benjamin Harrison. Mrs Pothergill wrote Mrs Draper that she thought the earliest James Parham had two sons Matthew and James (who patented land in 1690) and a daughter Frances, who married Francis King in Henrico county before 1696 She thought that Matthew had several children - Thomas, Ephraim, James, Matthew, Lewis and Edward ( that is the first Matthew mentioned as a child of James in 1655, when Elias Holmes left him cattle for his schooling. She also thought that the first Matthew may have married a Gower(Gore).

Va. Mag. 2-280 names a George Holmes in James City Co. living on hand adjoining John Johnson, granted for himself, wife Rebecca and servant Aug 4, 1635. Va. Mag. 2-69 has a John Holmes in Va. in 1622; and Va. Mag. 1-256 gives will of Capt. Rowland probated 1656 who names legatee "brother Thomas Holmes". This is especially interesting for this Capt Rowland married Alice, daughter of Richard Eltonhead, and this Alice married 2ndly before 1657, Henry Corbin and they were ancestors of the Va. Corbins, Alice Eltonhead had a sister to marry a Parham, Henry Parham, if I remember correctly.

I wonder what kin Lewis Parham was to William Green, who names him in his will in 1749.

Amelia Col was formed from Prince George Co. in 1734, so that James Parham in Amelia may have never left the old "stamping ground".

From a record in Edward Pleasants Valentines Papers, a James Parham was living in N.C. as early as 1736 and made a deed of gift of land to Francis Exum of Southampton Co. Va. or rather Isle of Wight Co. the part that must have become Southampton as the will of Francis Exum was probated in the latter county in 1753, naming those Williamson sisters; add James Parham in Brunswick was surety for the marriage of Mary Parham to John Williamson in 1753.

Had you noticed that Matthew Parham with child James born 1760 had wife Rebecca or Rebeckah; and Ephraim Parham with children - Frances, William, Rebecca born between 1741 and 1752. also had a wife named Rebecca. Another record in Va. Mag. 15-381-Brunswick county shows that in 1742, James Parham was in N.C. and land involved in lawsuit was given to Joshua Clark. A James Parham was listed in first Poll List of Brunswick in 1748, also Lewis Parham.

Va. Mag. 5-70 Lewis Parham, Justice of Brunswick county in 1746
Prince George county records Deed of Lewis Parham to "Cousin Lewis Parham" son of James Parham Nov. 12, 1759

Va. county record by Crosier Vol. and shows that William Parham Sr. was granted land in what is now Brunswick county in 1726 and Ephraim Parham, the 2nd was granted land in that section, 398 acres in 1728.

It was Henry Parham who married Elizabeth Eltonhead, sister of Alice, and a also sister of Agatha who married 1st Ralph Wormley and 2nd Cuthbert Fenwick and there were several other Eltonhead sisters of these three, married to prominent men in Va. but I cannot locate my note. Their brother Richard Eltonhead born 1611 married Ann daughter of Richard Massey and he was very prominent in Maryland, closely connected with the Lucas and Jacobus or Jacoby families.

Brunswick county deed book 5-143-Jan 1, 1752 Hinchia Mabry the elder and Ann his wife to Clack Courtney for 150 pounds, 57 acres of land, 5 July last granted to the said Anne by the name of Anne Courtney.
This was the <sup>H</sup>inchia Mabry whose first wife was Frances Parham named in the will of her father Ephraim in 1726. In 1763 a record in Book 7 Brunswick county seems to indicate that this second wife of <sup>H</sup>inchia Mabry, Ann was living with Joshua Mabry and his wife Lucretia, and she is called a widow, of Hinchey Mabry, deceased.

An interesting thing is that witnesses to the will of Francis Maybury, third husband of Elizabeth Gilliam, probated in Surry 1712, the witnesses were Thomas Wynne, Robert Wynne and Henry Bedingfield- all of them my close kin. The witnesses to the will of his widow, Elizabeth (Gilliam) - West- Bevan- Maybury probated in 1715 in Surry, were Henry Watall, John Bolling and Susan Featherstone, the last mentioned close kin to Henry Randolph. She makes her sons Charles and Hinchaw her Executors, spelling the name Hinchaw instead of Hinchia. French being language of polite society in that day, last syllables were often "swallowed", Maybe my Henry Briggs married a daughter of the early Charles Gilliam. There was also a Hinchey Gilliam, will dated 1733 in Surry which will I have completed. Hinchey Mabry, son of Hinchey and Celia (Evans) Mabry, married Dorothy Clack of my Clack family.

Hoping that I may some day get these interesting lines completed and with best wishes and appreciation of your effort, I am

Yours very sincerely,

Dear Mrs Chapman,

I am enclosing a copy of the will of Ephraim Parham, who I am sure is the Ephraim Parham named in the will of his father, Ephraim Parham in 1726 and also named in the will of his mother Frances Parham in Brunswick County in 1740, will probated 1744. It is evident that he is the father of William Parham whose will was dated and probated in Brunswick in 1780, naming mother Rebecca. I wonder if the Nathaniel Parham, whose will is probated in Sussex in 1795 was his other son, Nathaniel. The will of his widow, Rebecca Parham was probated in Sussex in 1790. At least I suppose that was his mother, but maybe not, there were so many named Rebecca.

The Parish Register, states that this Ephraim Parham who died April 2, 1763 was 65 years old, so he was born in 1698, and his brother Captain Matthew Parham was born four years earlier in 1694, according to the Parish Register, so both of them were near the age of thirty, when their father Ephraim died in 1726. Mrs Draper has just sent me a very important record which she has obtained from some man in Washington D.C. who is trying to connect her Va. lineage with her English ancestors, Mrs Draper is descended from Frances Parham ( sister of Ephraim who died 1763) who married Hinchea Mabury. This record proves that Ephraim Parham who died in 1726 had two other sons- Green and James. Mrs Draper has sent several genealogists to Surry and not a one of them found this record, except this man. It must be the settlement of the estate-

Record Book 1725-30 Surry Co. page 642 Ephraim Parham, his will, Surry Co. Jan 15, 1726 devises to-

daughter Frances

grand daughter Elizabeth Maberry

son JAMES

daughter Frances, wife of Hinchea Maberry

son Matthew Parham

Peter Green, witness.

It is odd that he did not mention the son Ephraim and the wife Frances, the other witnesses and executors.

Mrs Draper is also descended from Nicholas Smith, who married Elizabeth, daughter of John Flood. This Nicholas Smith was born between 1655 and 1659 and died 1719. I have an old note stating that Elizabeth widow of Thomas King, married secondly Elizabeth ( wife of Nicholas Smith) and had a sister Jane, whose husband was Thomas Lane both sisters mentioned in a record in 1693, as being daughters of Col. John Flood, deceased and sisters of Waters Flood.

I guess it was Ephraim Parham's ( died 1763) son Nathaniel, who married 9 Oct 1758 the widow Celia (Pettway) Lee. Was he the same Nathaniel Parham, who married Feb 10, 1769, Rebecca, daughter of William Parham?

Henry Gee married Frances Parham 16 March 1759. These were both mentioned in the will of Ephraim in 1763.

I wonder whose son was William Parham, who married Mary Stevens, daughter of Edward Stevens, Sep 18, 1755. A long list of children belonging to them is in the Register- Elizabeth, Lewis, William, Thomas, John, Stevens, Frances ( born 1765) and I feel sure these were the three brothers in Brunswick with sister Frances, although one of the brothers was James, instead of Thomas;

Mrs. Pleasants' letter

but there was probably a brother James not listed in Register.

I feel sure from the list of children of Nathaniel and Celia Parham, that he must have been the son of Ephraim (died 1763) for the Register has Lewis, Mary, Ephraim.

Of course the children of Ephraim (died 1763) given in Register between 1741 and 1752 are incomplete- Frances born 1741, William born 1744/5, Rebecca born 1752. Lee Nicholson wrote me that the James Parham, who died in Sussex with will probated Oct 3, 1793 was the son of Nathaniel and Celia Parham. In will he names a brother William Parham, his wife's brother John Graves and a daughter

Do you think the Mary Parham, who died 1812, leaving all to sons Nathaniel and James W. Parham, was the widow of my James Parham? If so she must have been the mother of Nathaniel, who was one of the older children, if not the oldest of my James Parham.

Since Mary was the wife of James Parham in 1760, she may have been the mother of my Frances, for she may have married James Parham soon after her father's death in 1754, June, or at least after will was filed on that date. My Frances may have been quite young, 13 maybe, when she married Peter Randolph, for her father did not give her the negro Fanny until May 29, 1775; and this may have been soon after her marriage. The earliest birth of a child of Peter and Frances (Parham) Randolph in Albemarle Parish Register, was Nancy, daughter of Peter Randall and Frances, his wife, born June 10, 1774, christened Dec 13, 1774, Godparents, Mathew Parham, Mary Jarrett, Priscilla Northington.

This was probably their oldest child and so they hardly married before 1773, the year after the death of the father of Peter. I have always felt dubious about Peter being born in 1750 and his wife three years earlier. You know Nancy above, was the one who chose Nathaniel Parham her guardian, instead of the Robert Jones, her father named in his will in 1786. The record stating her choosing is in Brunswick County's published in Edward Pleasants Valentine Papers.

This William Parham who died in Brunswick in 1780, is evidently the son of Ephraim and Rebecca Parham; and Nancy, daughter of my Peter Randolph was probably also named for this Nancy Lucas or at least they have been named for some other Nancy Lucas. Note the Nathaniel Dunn and Kinchea Mabry, both close kin to my family. The will of his mother, Rebecca Parham probated in Sussex Feb 4, 1790, names daughter Jane Mason and grand children named- Mabry, Mason, Gee, Wyche, Tatum, Dunn, Lewis, Executor- son in law John Mason; witnesses N. (or W.) Harrison, Eliz. Mason, Lewis Parham. She surely must have had many daughters, or if a few, they must have married several husbands and had children by all.

The children of Ephraim Parham and Rebecca, his wife in the Albemarle Parish Register were born between 1741 and 1752- Frances, William Rebecca, William born 1744. Then there was an Ephraim Parham with wife Ruth, child-- Betsy born 1768.

Mrs. Fleasants Letter of June 1/1936 Page 3

The Nathaniel Parham who married Celia Pettway could hardly have been the son of my James, probably too old. In Sussex, an Ephraim Parham married Hannah Hill, dau. of Richard 15, Nov. 1764 and Ephraim Parham married Ruth Dunn March 19, 1767- Surety Thomas Dugn. Nathaniel Parham married Rebecca, dau. of Wm Parham 10 Feb 1769 Nathaniel Parham married the widow Celia (Pettway) Less 9 Oct 1758 Lewis Parham married Polly Gibbon Aug 2, 1802- Security Edward Pennington But none of these may have been the sons of my James of Brunswick. Lewis Parham married Elizabeth Chappell 21 Nov 1793 - Sec. James Chappell

It is surely confusing, so many bearing same names. It was in Dec 1793 that Nancy Randolph orphan of Peter Randolph chose Nathaniel Parham, her guardian, at which time she was nineteen years old. In the Albemarle Parish Register there are children by three named Matthew between 1739 and 1760 - wives -Susannah, Martha and Rebecca. Probably first two were wives of the same Mathew Parham.

I am intensely interested in that Joel Parish, for that name has come down in three of four generations in the Parish family, which intermarried with my Norvells, Hills. Thomas Norvell, older borhter of my Spencer Dawson Norvell, married Mary Dawson in 1768 and secondly Judith Parish in 1779. Mary Hill married Moses Parish 1761; Nathaniwl Hill married Nancy Parish 1767; Joel Parish married Eliz Hill 1757. All close kin to my Frances Hill who married Spencer Norvell 1770- all of these marriages in St. James Northham Parish, Goochland. In the next generation Joel Parish married in Lunenburg county. Susannah Maury in 1788, sister of Mary Ann who married Mestealf de Craffenried, both these Maurys descended from the Fontaines. My ancestor John P. Norvell (son of Spencer) moved into Tennessee with these two couples and theyl lived on adjoining plantations in Alabama later, where another Joel Parish married into the Saunders (Sandys) family.

I hope I can get it all straight some day, but most of all I want to find the parents of my George Randolph, who died in Surry in 1711. If you should ever get a hint of who hea may be, please let me know so I can send a check for the required records to prove it. I feel very sure that either he or his wife were close kin to my Wynne family, I have spent so much money in those counties and seem to make such slow progress that I am getting discouraged, and about ready to give up. I have not yet had any report from the Colonial Dames on my Wynne-Malone- Chappell- Randolph Line. If they do not accept it, I shall be so disgusted that I probably will give up genealogy and teach music again. I have not been to the library here recently as I have had no orders for work for some time, and am wondering if you have ever published your last collection you were working on. Miss Rowell told me she intended to get a copy when it was published. I am anxious to see it.

Sincerely yours,

Lucile G. Fleasants.
